

I like xm radio and do not see any justification for limiting what xm broadcasts. I pay for it willingly and am entitled to hear any opinion, news or music I choose from the medium I choose to get it from. Don't even think about violating my rights. I would enjoy the satisfaction of having some dimwitted, selfserving, politician to sue.